The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, March 21. 1706.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 6.

Rome, February 9.

THE 4th of this Month, a Congregation was held at the Palace, where it was taken into Deliberation whether it might be proper to interdict ſome National Churches of this City, the Adminiſtrators of which Churches refuſe to give Account to the Pope's Officers of the Diſpoſal of pious Legacies left to them, pretending they are not bound to give Account to any but to the Aſſembly that has the Care of thoſe Revenues. It was reſolv'd not to proceed to Extremities that might have ill Effects, but to employ other Means for rectifying the Abuſes that may have been committed. The 5th a Congregation was held, touching the Nomination to Benefices, which the late Emperor enjoy'd by Virtue of an Indulto granted him by Pope Alexander VII; of which Indulto the preſent Emperor has not demanded a Continuation. The Nuncio Davia is dangerouſly ſick at Neuſtad, and has made ſuch preſſing Inſtances for Leave to return, that the Pope has granted it: But at the ſame time has order'd the Auditor of the Nunciature, to continue there, and has empower'd him to negociate with the Imperial Miniſters the Affairs the Nuncio was to have tranſacted with them. To Day the Jeſuites elected the new Aſſiſtants of their General, viz. Father d'Aubenton for France, Father Imperiale for Italy, Father Monteſdoca for Spain, Father Diaz for Portugal, and Father Weibel for Germany.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated March 12.

Rome, Feb. 20. On Sunday the 4th Inſtant the Pope ſent for all the Curates and Preachers of the ſeveral Pariſhes of this City; and according to Cuſtom admoniſh'd them to be very diligent in diſcharging their Functions during the approaching Time of Lent, and to take all the Care they could that their Pariſhoners paid due Obſervation to that Time. The Wedneſday following, his Holineſs went to the Church of St. Sabina; and after he had heard Maſs ſung by Cardinal Colloredo, perform'd the Ceremony of diſtributing Aſhes to all the Cardinals and Prelates that accompanied him. The next Day, the Body of Pope Alexander VIII, Uncle of Cardinal Ottoboni, being taken out of a Vault in which it had been depoſited, was carried in Proceſſion and put into the magnificent Tomb, which that Cardinal has caus'd to be made for him in the Cathedral of St. Peter. His Eminency had invited the ſacred College to this Ceremony, and 19 Cardinals appear'd at it: Alſo the Chapter of St. Peter aſſiſted at the Proceſſion, with a Choir of Muſicians. A Courier from Paris has brought Advice of the Death of Cardinal Coiſlin, who has left a 20th Place in the ſacred College vacant: He likewiſe brought the News of Cardinal Janſon's Promotion to the Dignity of great Almoner of France, and his Eminency having notified it to the College of Cardinals, they ſent him their Compliments upon it.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated March 19.

Rome, Feb. 27. Signior Davia, Nuncio in Germany, has at length obtain'd the Pope's Leave to return hither; which makes it believ'd the Accomodation with the Court of Vienna is far off ſtill. Cardinal d'Arquien, Father of the Queen Dowager of Poland, was taken Yeſterday with a Fit of an Apoplexy; it went off again, but he is not yet out of Danger: He is in the hundredth Year of his Age. The Affair of the National Churches makes a great Noiſe here: The Pope having order'd thoſe Churches to be viſited, (that is to ſay, the Church dell' Anima belonging to the German Nation, that of St. James to the Spaniards, that of St. Lewis to the French, and that belonging to the Portugueſe,) and an exact Account to be requir'd of the Diſpoſal of their Revenues; and the Adminiſtrators of thoſe Churches refuſing to give ſuch Account; the ſaid Revenues are ſequeſter'd for the Contumacy of thoſe Adminiſtrators in not ſubmitting to the Apoſtolical Viſitation. Cardinal Janſon is going to Nettuno, there to paſs ſome Days for the Recovery of his Health by the Benefit of that Air, before he ſets out for France.

Venice, March 6. The 22d of laſt Month ſome Companies of Foot ſail'd from the Lido, to reinforce the Troops we have in Terra-firma. The ſame Day, General Steynau arriv'd here from Germany, with a numerous Retinue. The 23d he had Audience of the Senate; receiv'd from them his Commiſſion and Inſtructions of Generaliſſimo of our Forces in Terra-firma; and took the uſual Oath of Fidelity to them. 'Tis ſaid his Excellency will ſpeedily go from hence to take Poſſeſſion of that Employment. The 2d of this Month Signior Leonardo Dona, who had been Procurator of St. Mark 22 Years, died here; and the next Day the great Council choſe into his Place the Chevalier Ruzzini, who is at preſent at Conſtantinople in the Quality of Ambaſſador extraordinary from the Republick to the Ottoman Porte: His Relations here have made great Rejoycings 3 Nights ſucceſſively, upon his Election to this Dignity. The Count de Taffis, and another of the Elector of Bavaria's Miniſters, are arriv'd here; and have brought the Electoreſs Remittances for a conſiderable Sum of Money, and a Preſent of Jewels of great Value.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated March 16.

Baſil, March 7. A General Diet of all the Swiſs Cantons is ſummon'd to meet at Baden the 16th of this Month; and the Regents of Zurich have intimated to all the other Cantons by the circular Letters or Summons iſſued for calling this Diet, that tho' ſome of the Cantons ſhould not ſend Deputies to it, thoſe that ſhould appear would paſs ſuch Reſolutions as they ſhould judge proper on the Affairs that ſhould be laid before them. Baron Greuth, Subdelegate of the Emperor's Ambaſſador, is to repair to this Diet, to ſollicit the Proteſtant Cantons to employ their good Offices to perſwade the Roman Catholick Cantons to revoke the new Treaty of Alliance which they have concluded with the Milaneze in Favour of the Duke of Anjou. Some Advices from Lucerne, ſay thoſe Cantons begin already to repent of that Treaty, inſomuch that one of them has laid a great Fine upon one of their Regents that was very forward in puſhing on that Affair: Of which we expect a Confirmation.
